

Code of Conduct for Students

Respect Everyone:

Treat classmates, teachers, and staff with kindness and respect. Any form of bullying, discrimination, or harassment is NOT tolerated. Use appropriate language, be truthful, and resolve conflicts respectfully.

Lateness is not tolerated, and students arriving late will be marked absent for that session. However, they may still attend the lesson despite being marked absent.

Punctuality

Attendance

To qualify for the ACEPT students must maintain a minimum attendance of 80%. Those failing to meet this requirement will need to repeat the level.

Any plagiarized work (which includes friends, relatives, internet sources and Artificial Intelligence) will receive a score of 0, and the student will receive a written warning.

Plagiarism

Take Responsibility for Your Actions:

Be accountable for your behavior, assignments, and actions. If you make a mistake, acknowledge it and work to improve.

Pay attention when others are speaking, follow instructions, and contribute meaningfully to discussions.

Listen Actively & Participate:

Use Technology Responsibly :

Only use devices for educational purposes as directed by the teacher. Avoid distractions like texting or gaming during class. AI is permitted as a learning tool only.

Support and include all classmates in discussions and group activities. Differences should be celebrated, and everyone should feel welcome.

Encourage Inclusivity & Teamwork:

Respect to Intellectual Property:

Pirated or photocopied books are strictly prohibited in all departments of the university.

English is the official language of instruction. Students are required to use English as much as possible during academic activities, including classroom discussions and tutorials.
